

Pete Sauer Wins An Easy Victory Over Tony Bernardi

It took considerably less than an hour for Pete Sauer to twice pin the shoulders of Tony Bernardi to the mat at the roof garden Tuesday evening. The match was well attended and the crowd was well satisfied with the exhibition, although it was rather a foregone conclusion that Bernardi would come out second best. Less than a month ago, Sauer threw Bernardi twice, in fifty-five and ten minutes. He thought he could do it again, but missed his calculations.

Sauer rushed right into the struggle, and devoted almost all of his attention to securing toe holds. Time and again Sauer broke head locks, and Bernardi was successful in getting away from some serious toe holds. The crowd was right up on its toes all during the match. The first fall came in 35½ minutes, Sauer securing a leg scissors and toe hold. The second fall came in 6½ minutes, a toe hold being responsible for this also. It developed that during the first fall one of Bernardi's left ribs had been fractured.

Tony, following the match, made a sportsmanlike talk, in which he admitted cheerfully that Sauer was the best man, congratulated Alliance on having him as a citizen, and commended the support the wrestling fans were giving him.

Sauer wrestles Charles Cykoff of Denver tonight at Crawford, and a number of Alliance fans are driving over for the match, among the A. G. Isaacson and Frank Melvin. Cykoff is said to be a fast one, having wrestled Abe Coutell two hours to a draw recently.

The preliminaries were interesting, including a boxing match between two paperweights, Reuben Hamburger and Harry Bernhardt; an exhibition wrestle between Carl Fredericks and Clifford Lester, in which the former was given the decision; and a wrestle between Nick Rennert and J. J. Brecht for a side bet of two dollars. Brecht won the honors.

Dr. G. J. Hand, who acted as referee, announced a wrestling match soon for the benefit of the baseball club. He also announced that a meeting of the baseball association would be held at 2 p. m. Sunday at the chamber of commerce rooms, at which it is desired that all enthusiasts turn out.

DR. BOWMAN—office in First National Bank Building. 8tf

We have heard of benevolent autocrats, but our gratitude goes out to the dictators of masculine fashions who say the old styles will do for another year.

SOCIETY

The Kinunka Camp Fire girls entertained at a dancing party Tuesday evening. The guests were: Misses Katherine Harris, Edna Mae Miller, Theresa Looney, Dolly Daily, Frances Grassman, Josephine Wilson, Frances Schott, Inez Hazen, Josephine Wright, Janice Adams, Elizabeth Wilson, Ethel Trabert, Helen Young, Florence Baker, Verna Dow, Vera Scott, Lucille Butler and Messrs. Raymond Lewis, Harold Dickinson, Raymond Brown, Robert Bicknell, James Fowler, Royal Irwin, Ivan Wong, Ray Edwards, Roy Trabert, Frank Daily, Fred Purdy, Donald Katen, Arnold Badscard, Ralph Garvin, Lester Cross, Horace Fuller, Charles Cross, George Purdy and Hersel Davis of Kansas City. The chaplains were: Mrs. Wilson, Grassman, Prettyman, Adams and Young.

Mrs. Ida Betts will entertain the girls of her Sunday school class and some of their friends at her home this evening. A basket lunch will be served and the evening spent in April Fool's day stunts and games.

Miss Josephine Ganson entertained a few guests at a bridge party Tuesday evening. During the course of the evening a dainty lunch was served, the table decorations carrying out a color scheme of pink and white. An interesting feature of the decorations was the place cards which announced, in quite a clever way, the engagement of Miss Ganson to George L. Burr, Jr. The guests were the Misses Theresa Morrow, Matilda Frankle, Margaret Harris, Mildred Griggs, Mrs. Fred Carlson and Mrs. Ernest L. Potarf.

About fifty friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McKune surprised them at their home on Niobrara street Thursday night. The time was spent in formally and refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Mildred Griggs is entertaining a few friends at bridge this evening. Guests invited are the Misses Matilda Frankle, Theresa Morrow, Josephine Ganson, Margaret Harris and Mrs. Ernest Potarf.

Mrs. Ida Betts entertained at her home Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Merle Arrison who is leaving soon for Kansas City, where she will make her home.

Miss Billie Swenson entertained on Wednesday evening at the Christian church those who took part in the play given the evening before.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Saturday, April 2, with Mrs. Vern Hunt, 935 Cheyenne.

Miss Margaret Harris had a few friends in Wednesday afternoon to play bridge.

The P. E. O.'s will meet Monday with Mrs. G. L. Griggs, 807 Cheyenne.

The Terpsichorean club of Alliance Lodge, F. & A. M., No. 7, entertained the Masons and wives and the members of the Eastern Star at a banquet Saturday evening, March 26, which was served by Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Fuller. The tables were beautifully decorated in Easter flowers and smilax. The following program was rendered, Harry Drisdorf acting as master of ceremonies:

Song, "Brightly Beams Our Father's Mercy."

Prayer by chaplain.

Song, "Angel Eyes," Mrs. George Kays.

Address, "Justice," A. P. Curtis.

Address, "Progress of the Race," James Thornton.

Song, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

Address, "Truth," Rev. B. H. Moore.

Song, "Wonderful Words of Life," Mrs. William Darnell.

Recitation, "Speak Up, Ike, an' 'Spress Yo' Self," Mrs. Frank Curtis.

Address, "Charity," Mrs. J. A. Farr.

Instrumental quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Julius, A. P. Curtis, Dewey Emanuel.

Address, "Wisdom," Mack Linear, worshipful master.

Response by Mrs. George Kays, worthy matron, in behalf of Alliance chapter No. 69, O. E. S.

Closing song, "Gog be With You Till We Meet Again."

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Schields returned Wednesday morning from a three weeks' trip to points in California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Howe of Des Moines, Iowa, are visiting with Mr. Howe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howe, of this city.

T. J. O'Keefe returned Thursday from Long Beach, Cal., where he and his family have been spending the winter.

If it keeps on as it is, the few of us who are not engaged in banditry may have to be prepared to prove an alibi at any moment.

A Chicago paper has reopened the old question of whether a woman always closes her eyes when kissing. In some cases she simply has to.

Now that a federal tax has been placed on bathing, thrift is going to be very popular with a certain portion of the population.

Herald Want Ads—1¢ a word. If it is Results you want, use

The Horace Bogue Store

Correct Spring Attire

*Some Modes FOLLOW the Fashion
Bogue Store Modes LEAD Them*

Welcome

Delegates of the N. S. T. A.

THE HORACE BOGUE STORE

extends its most cordial greetings to the delegates of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association, and welcomes them to the City of Alliance.

We wish your stay in our city to be remembered long by you with pleasant recollections of courtesy and consideration shown by every citizen.

Distinctive Suits

In Tailored and Dressy Modes of Twill Cord, Poiret Twill, Tricotine and Serge in the new shades of Grey, Tan and Rooky; also Navy, at—

$25 to $79.50

DRESSES

Such a variety in vogue that little opportunity is given to feature any particular style.

Models of Canton Crepe and Taffeta have the lead in shades of Grey, Brown and Tan, at—

$19.75 to $65

New Wraps

A very comprehensive assortment with the New Fan Shaped Collars with Silk Embroidery in beautiful shades—

$18.50 to $65

Blouses

New Blouses arriving every week in Satin and Silk Canton Crepe in the new shades of Grey, Tomato, Rust, Honeydew; also Black and White—

$8.50 to $17.50

Millinery

NEW CHICK PATTERN HATS

A beautiful assortment, all right up-to-the-minute in Style and Color.

$5.00 and up to $22.50.

